

Women of Nuremberg is a research-driven TV show that follows a core cohort of women from their first moments in Nuremberg through the height of the trials, weaving in their complex, emotional backstories along the way. Women of Nuremberg is a premium original series inspired by the true, never-before-told story of the American women who played major roles at the Nuremberg Trials. This is an international, fast-paced courtroom drama set against the backdrop of the most famous trials of the 20th century, with the world's ethical and legal future hanging in the balance.